

WAYNE

From Maine

For over a decade, Wayne from Maine has been performing and recording music for children. The Wayne from Maine show is a 50-minute adventure through various musical styles designed for the young and young at heart. Audience participation is always encouraged. Volunteers are invited up on stage to play various percussive instruments or sing into a wireless microphone. The audience becomes part of the show. There's never a dull moment as Wayne inspires young minds to think and laugh with his very own brand of "Edu-Tainment".

valuable themes include:

- Reading
- Self-Esteem
- Nutrition
- Being Different
- Just Plain Fun

Wayne performs at Schools, Libraries, Festivals, Fairs, any children's event from Maine to Maryland. Wayne also "edu-tains" at fund-raising events. For more information, call or e-mail. wayne@waynefrommaine.com

Percussionist

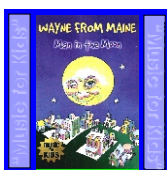

Jimmy James, the "Koonga Boonga Man", adds lots of rhythmic fun to the show. Jimmy has been a professional drummer for over 20 years. The kids love helping Jimmy with all his cool percussion toys.

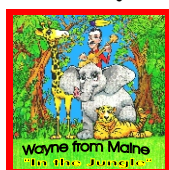

ALL ORIGINAL MUSIC

available on CD or Cassette from our website or at over 100 locations throughout New England. The list of stores is also available at our website.

"Man in the Moon"

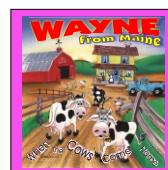

"In the Jungle"

"Happy as a Clam"

"When the Cows Come Home"

Wayne with first guitar.

Sears Sivertone Circa: 1964